Vachanamrut Nondh: recommendations for the 28 differences

Nov 9, 2026 · @HARDIK SHAH

The Vachanamrut Nondh by Ashwin Babubhai Shah gives a Vachanamrut reference for each entry. In 28 entries the quoted words were found in a different Vachanamrut from the one cited. This doc recommends what to do with each one. The full side-by-side passages are on the site's Differences page (differences.html), numbered the same way.

Summary

- Change the reference (24): the Nondh's words match the other Vachanamrut closely (76–100%) and barely match the cited one. Most are small slips: the right number in the wrong section (e.g. Gadhada Antya instead of Gadhada Madhya, 8 cases), or a nearby number (e.g. 27 instead of 28).
- Keep the Nondh as it is (2): entries 3 and 6. On a closer check the Nondh's own reference is the best match, and the site's automatic matcher picked the wrong place.
- Ask Ashwinbhai (2): entries 14 and 20. These are his own summaries rather than direct quotes, so neither Vachanamrut matches well enough to decide from the text alone.

How this was checked

For each entry, the Nondh's words were compared (Gujarati letters only, ignoring punctuation) against every paragraph of the cited Vachanamrut and of the one where the site found them. The two percentages below say how much of the Nondh's wording appears in each. For the unclear entries, all 273 Vachanamruts were searched for the best match.

Notes on the four that aren't simple changes

- 3 · કૃતાર્થ. The Nondh summarises Nityanand Swami's question about becoming fully fulfilled once lust and the other enemies are destroyed. Loya 1 matches it at 91%, and no other Vachanamrut comes close (the next best is 51%). The Nondh is right, and the site should stop flagging this one.
- 6 · જાણપણું. "Do bhakti standing at the gate of awareness" is the Nondh's own summary. Searching all 273 Vachanamruts, Gadhada Antya 9 (the one cited) is the best match, ahead of Vartal 10. Keep the Nondh's reference.
- 14 · ભગવાન. A short phrase about the qualities of a sadhu worth serving like God. Gadhada Antya 26 is the closest at 62%, with nothing else above 50%. That leans towards Antya 26, but the phrase is too short and paraphrased to be sure.
- 20 · વિકાસ અવસ્થા. This is Ashwinbhai's explanatory note, and it points the reader to a commentary on Loya 8 within the note itself. The best text match is only 36% (Loya 7), so the reference may be deliberate. Only he can say.

Next step

Once Ashwinbhai (or Hardik) confirms, the site's data file can be updated in one pass and the Differences page will shrink to whatever is still open. Nothing on the site has been changed yet.
